– Daily Herald – Scouting DuPage and Fox boys tennis

March 27, 2023

By Dave Hess

Hinsdale Central, New Trier and Barrington took the top three spots at last year's Class 2A boys tennis state tournament while Benet was second to Latin at the Class 1A tournament.

Here's a look at some players and teams to watch this spring.

AURORA CENTRAL CATHOLIC

Coach Mike Cowen welcomes back 1A state qualifiers which include seniors Elijah Hartford and Adam Hartford and Justin Cebulski and junior Brian Novack.

"We would like to improve on last year's success," said Cowen. "We put in hard work in the off-season. We want to win a sectional. We have never done that in school history."

BARTLETT

It is a rebuilding season for Colleen Brandner's Hawks. The Hawks, who lose 14 seniors, will rely on 4-year varsity performer Tej Shah. Shah is the top singles player for Bartlett the last four years.

The No. 1 doubles team of seniors Yusaf Ghani and Krish Patel are also back.
